CONTENTS

Foreword ……… Lebanese Association of Women Researchers

Introduction ................................................. Editorial Committee

Part I: Testimonies

Alia Ibrahim
Photo Revolution… The Important Thing is not to Drop the Camera, only then the Dream will be Over …………………………………………………………………………………………..

Fowziya Abu Khaled
Recovery from the Evil of Cancer at Dawn of the Arab Spring …………………

Hind Rajoub
Nour, a Child refugee, "her Home" is a Morgue that Resembles me or Syria ………………………………………………………………………………………………………..

Khawla Dunia
The Pressures of the Revolution and the Syrian Woman ……………………..

Ghada Shahbandar
Youth and the Women Revolution of January 25, 2011, Egypt …………………

Nadia al-Kawkabani
Their Interests in the Revolution was Greater than Our Need for it …………………

Hammadi al-Massoudi
The verse of "The Will to Live" [Iradat al-Hayat] by Abu-l Qassim al-Shabbi ………

Salim Mouawad
A Revolution of Contradictions in the Land of Cedar …………………………………
PART TWO: Studies and Researches

THEME 1: Players and emerging actors

Abeir Ibrahim Imneina
Women in the Libyan revolution between Presided over the Scene and the Marginalization of Roles .................................................................

Shereen Abouelnaga
From Exploitation to Polarization: Egyptian Women Mapping their Space and Discourse (Article in English) .................................................................

Lilia Labidi
The Political Role of Women during the Arab Spring in Tunisia (Article in English) .................................................................

Amro Salah al-Din ‘Alaa
Women Activists “Hoda al-Saddah, Mervat al-Tellawi, Mona dhu-l Fiqar”: Lobby Group in the Egyptian Khamsin Committee ..............................................

Amel Grami
Tunisian Women and the Revolution: Expectations, Challenges and Stakes ..............................................................................................................

Sabrine Saad, Stéphane Bazan and Addis Tesfa
Infowar on the Web in the Middle-East (Article in English) ...............................................................................................................................

Mona Yahya al-Mahakery
The Yemeni Women: from Marginalization to Revolution .........................

THEME II: The Arab Revolutions: innovative patterns

Rafif Rida Sidawi
When the Revolution imposes its Pattern: Egypt as an Example .................
Saada Kalakesh, Stéphane Bazan and Christophe Varin
A Web for all Seasons: The Arab Web as a Biotope for Change
(Article in English) ..............................................................................

THEME III: Innovative forms and Expressions in Arab revolutions

Mona Abaza
Translated and designed by Huda Taleb
Terrorism, Resistance and Gender Imaginary in Cairo Graffiti ....................

Watfa Hamadé
Manifestation des révolutions arabes au sein des expressions théâtrales des jeunes
.............................................................................................................

Nader Sraj
Discourse of Objection: “Dégage” as a Prototype .................................

Hind al-Soufi
La Piéta yéménite entre l’archétype et les révolutions arabes ....................

Ibrahim al-Ariss
Arab Spring Cinema: A Critical View ...................................................

Mayssoun Ali
La révolution en tant que questionnement de l'art: le graffiti comme un théâtre de la rue .................................................................

Mona Fayad
The Body as a Vessel and an Actor of Revolutions ...................................

Omar Kouch
Establishing Slogans in the Syrian Revolution ........................................

THEME IV: Christianity and Islam in the Arab Revolutions

Ridwan al-Sayyid
Azhar Documents during the Revolution and the Horizons of Islamic Reform .....
PART III: Bibliography

Fatmeh Charaffeddine
Literature on Arab Spring: Short Explained Bibliography .................................

Huda Taleb
Review of the “Political, Aesthetic, and Ethical Positions of Tunisian women artists, 2011-2013, by Lilia Labidi” .................................................................